

Dear Elena,

We received the DNA on December 12th have just started the library construction process. Once we have 3 libraries, sample sequencing will take place and this sequence will be used for quality control of the libraries. I am afraid I cannot precisely predict at this time when sequence and assemblies will be available to you, but my guess would be sometime in April.

best wishes,

Paul

At 10:50 AM 1/14/2004 -0500, you wrote:

>Paul Richardson (925-296-5851)

>Joint Genome Institute

>2800 Mitchell Drive

>Walnut Creek, CA 94598

>pmrichardson@lbl.gov

>

>Jan. 14, 2004

>

>Re: Deinococcus geothermalis DNA delivery to JGI

>

>Dear Dr. Richardson,

>Please confirm receiving of Deinococcus geothermalis DNA from USUHS (Dr.

>Daly Lab) for draft sequencing at the JGI.

>

>Sincerely,

>

>Elena Gaidamakova, PhD,

>

>egaidamakova@usuhs.mil

>301-295-0063

>