Nursing Research Course

Military Nursing Research & Evidence-Based Practice: Advancing Wellness for the Fighting Force & Their Families

29 April – 3 May 2012

San Antonio, Texas

This course includes presentations by U.S. Army nursing leaders, nationally known research and clinical experts and active-duty, reserve and retired military nurse researchers from the Army, Navy, Air Force and Veterans Health Administration. Course award-winning abstract and paper presentations, a poster session and a variety of valuable networking opportunities will also be featured. Clinical innovations in research and evidence-based practice projects will be showcased as well as panel discussions designed to stimulate research questions and effective interventions. Research tools and education sessions selected by participants will round out the program.
